

Monthly Sales Chart Model

Percent commission appears in italics above agent name*

The Sales Chart Model illustrates how agents can make commission from the sales of those clients to whom they sell the product, when the latter act as agents by selling it to other clients. All those who buy the product, whether or not they decide to sell it, still have use of a worthy product.